Part V of the Police Act 1997, and the Protection of Vulnerable Groups (Scotland) Act 2007 introduced a new system of disclosing criminal history information to individuals and organisations for employment and other purposes. To this end, Disclosure Scotland was established within the Scottish Criminal Record Office (SCRO) for the purpose of issuing Disclosure Certificates. These Certificates provide the detail of convictions, or indicate that there is none.

In this context, it is now the Scottish FA's policy for all persons wishing to enter the refereeing movement to be the subject of a Basic Disclosure provided by Disclosure Scotland.
